SPAIN'S LEFTIST CAPITAL TENSE AFTER BOMBING

Rebel Aerial Attack Plants Bomb in the Heart of Madrid

FIERCE NIGHT BATTLE

Report Rebel Troops Inflict Heavy Losses on Gov- ernment Forces

By Thomas A. Loayza
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
MADRID, Aug. 29.—(INS)—Spain's Leftist capital was tense with apprehension today after a Rebel aerial attack planted a bomb in the heart of Madrid.

For the first time since the civil war began six weeks ago, an insurgent bomb fell in the actual city.
Previous Rebel bombings have been confined to government airports outside the city limits.

Shortly before midnight the capital was startled by the sound of an explosion, and within a few minutes the government issued a communique which stated:

"The people of Madrid just heard an explosion caused by a bomb without a fuse dropped by an enemy plane for the purpose of causing alarm.

"The government has confidence in the calm serenity of the people of Madrid and knows the people are confident of the government's ability to frustrate all Rebel objectives."

The bomb fell on Cidalee Square near the war office, the central postoffice and the Bank of Spain. Four persons were injured.

The spot where the bomb struck forms a junction of the four most important streets in the capital.

The bombing occurred after President Manuel Azana went to the battle-front and reviewed Loyalist troops at Tarazona near Guadalajara, 70 miles northeast of the city.

Meanwhile the government announced preparations are underway for a big offensive against Rebels at Avila, 50 miles west of Madrid, at the foot of the Guadarrama Mountains. If the Rebels advanced there, they would be able to cut Madrid's water supply.

DEHOBBIE, France, Aug. 29.—(INS)— A fierce battle fought in the dead of a fog-bound night for possession of Fort San Marcial, key to the Spanish government stronghold of Irun, ended early today without result and a few hours later the Irun front was quiet—momentarily at least.

Suspension of the battle followed a bitter Rebel assault on San Marcial, launched shortly before midnight, and continued through the small hours of today.

But at six a. m. the entire front was silent save for a single insurgent airplane which bombed San Marcial without causing damage.

HENDAYE, France, Aug. 29.—(INS)— Spanish insurgents across the border were jubilant today at receipt of word from Burgos that Rebel troops defeated and inflicted heavy losses on government forces at Calceda within 60 miles of Toledo.

It was believed Rebel troops are now advancing to relieve insurgent troops besieged by Loyalists in Alcazar Fortress on the heights of Toledo.

SELLERSVILLE PUBLISHER TELLS OF GERMAN TOUR

Elmer E. Althouse Describes Conditions As He Found Them There

SAW HITLER IN BERLIN

A Germany of content and great industrialization, and a land filled with people reverently fond of their leader, Hitler, is the picture brought back by Elmer E. Althouse, Sellersville publisher, who recently returned from a six weeks' tour of Germany, England, France, Switzerland and Holland.

Althouse, who was on his fourth trip abroad, was accompanied by Walter H.
Baum, associated with Althouse in the publication of the Sellersville Herald and the Poultry Item.

The party saw Hitler on the famous Unter Den Linden, while in Berlin.
Hitler was riding at the head of a motorcade with very little police protection. Mr. Althouse observed that "even the President of the United States would have far more police protection on such an occasion."

But when the German people were questioned concerning their politics, Althouse received little information.
The Germans would not discuss this phase of their life, and inquiries revealed to Althouse that other visitors struck the same difficulty when they mentioned politics to the Germans.

The group of tourists visited the Olympics while in Berlin, but they were not overly enthusiastic concerning Hitler's attitude towards some of the American winners. Althouse claimed those who have seen news reels in this country concerning the Olympics have probably seen more of the games than the visitors. He explained this by saying that there were so many events going on at once that the spectators had little time to really see much. And the prices for the stadium seats ranged from $1 for the poorest to much higher figures.

Although there are a reputed million and a half unemployed workers in Germany, Althouse found the country in a very industrious state, and he pointed out that all the unemployed are cared for by the Government. In the fields the travelers observed the work being done with modern machinery and women following in the rear with rakes to make sure that nothing was lost.

As far as the farming industry is concerned, the publisher found that England, Holland, and Germany are all in advance of America. But the European farmer has been suffering some time from excessive rain and much of the produce had to be plowed under.

CHEEK IS INJURED

Walter Pacenski, Bristol R. D., while chopping wood yesterday was struck on the left cheek by a piece of the implement he was using, and suffered lacerations. Treatment was given at Harriman Hospital.

Will Fingerprint Bristol Residents Without Charge

Chief of Police Linford J. Jones and Bucks County Detective Anthony Russo announce today that they are prepared to take all finger prints of citizens for identification purposes.
The prints will be taken at the Municipal Building, here, without charge and will be filed with the Civilian Department at Washington, D. C., and will have no connection whatever with the criminal phase of finger printing.

It is announced by the National Identification Bureau that each year 35,000 persons are buried who are never identified. A larger percentage of these could be identified if they had had their finger prints taken and had they been filed with the Civilian Finger Print Division, Washington, D. C.

Residents of Bristol desiring to be finger printed or to have their children finger printed, are invited to communicate with either Chief Jones or Detective Russo and the prints will be taken without any cost whatever.

STOP WASTE IN TIME TO STOP DISASTER!

(New York American, August 28, 1936)

Governor Landon, in his analysis of the financial record of the Roosevelt Administration, presented in his Buffalo address, went to the heart of one of the greatest problems the American people must consider.

Mr. Landon merits the congratulations of his countrymen for his courageous attack upon the destructive tax policies of the New Deal.

His pledge for the repeal of the iniquitous surplus tax and other ruinous taxes that, if made permanent, WOULD MAKE THE DEPRESSION PERMANENT, is the brightest hope held before the people of this country since the depression started.

There is more than mere hope of restored prosperity in this promised policy of Mr. Landon.

Such a policy, of RELEASE FROM TAX OPPRESSION, will restore prosperity.

Of equal importance is the fact that:
Governor Landon WILL DO WHAT HE PROMISES.
THE WASTE OF PUBLIC FUNDS, of which the Roosevelt Administration is clearly guilty, is a charge that stands against the New Deal in the mind of every thinking citizen of America.

Mr. Landon, asserting the sane principle that the Government must not get into the habit of spending more than it receives, warns:

"The present Administration seems to have entirely disregarded this principle. We are living in a Fool's Paradise—FAR BEYOND OUR INCOME. We all know this cannot continue indefinitely, because we have known persons who have tried it. In due time, the days of reckoning must come. Some one, some time, will have to pay the bill."

No amount of political camouflage can conceal the known facts:—

That the New Deal has spent vast sums of money it did not possess;

That its expenditures have exceeded its revenues by enormous sums;

That it has borrowed against public credit in such a manner that generations not yet born will be struggling with the burden;

That it has levied confiscatory taxes against all the people, THE POOR AS WELL AS THE RICH, which constitute the greatest single barrier now standing between the country and the restoration of normal conditions.

It is incidental that Governor Landon, in presenting these facts, is a candidate for the Presidency. His indictment would be a service to this country if no election was at hand.

This reckless spending MUST STOP, no matter what power rules the American government.

IT WILL BE STOPPED, in one of the only two ways open to the Government and the people.

It will either be stopped by a return of reason to administration.

KNOX IN SPEECH ASSAILS 'FANATICS'

Attacks Roosevelt Administra- tion For Giving Jobs To Impractical Experimenters

OUTLINES PROGRAM

BURLINGTON, Vt., Aug. 29.—Col.
Frank Knox, Republican Vice-Presidential nominee, attacked the Roosevelt Administration last night "for giving fanatics, theorists and impractical experimenters power and place in government."

In an address before a State-wide rally of Vermont party followers he said:

"We shall expose the failures of the present Administration. We will stigmatize the deliberate attempt of the present Administration to undermine the American economic system.

"If this attack on error and evil constitutes a dirty campaign, Mr.
Four-Job Farley can make the most of it."

Speaking in the home State of former President Coolidge, Col. Knox
said:

"We hope to bring sanity back to Government.

"Under the administration of Alf M.
Landon America will turn from the wild extravagance, reckless experimentation, and imported ideas of economic control.

"It will return to the tried and tested precepts, the constitutional imitation, and the peculiarly American system under which we have grown to be the richest, the greatest, and the most powerful nation in the world."

Continuing his description of the issues of the November contest, Col.
Knox said:

"We shall fearlessly expose the fads, follies and fallacies of the Tugwells, the Frankfurters, the Walkers and the others who are ready, apparently, to scrap the American system in favor of a philosophy of government and a theory of society from Europe.

"We shall object to playing the part of guinea pigs in social and political experimentation."

Outlining the Republican program, Col. Knox said:

"We will so treat industry as to give national recovery a chance to develop."

BURGESS ANDERSON BANS ALL PARKING ON POND STREET

Chief Executive Issues Procla- mation and Orders Police To Enforce It

TO SAFEGUARD LIVES

Heavy Traffic Passing Through Here Makes Parking Dangerous

PROCLAMATION

To Owners and Drivers of Vehicles

WHEREAS, it has become necessary for the Pennsylvania State Highway Department to divert traffic from a portion of the Lincoln Highway while certain repairs and improvements to said Lincoln Highway are being made, to Route 13, which is Pond street, a heavily traveled and congested thoroughfare in Bristol Borough, and

WHEREAS, this traffic is likely to continue passing through and over Route 13, for a period of several months, and

WHEREAS, due to the fact that such heavy traffic passing through and over one of the principally traveled highways in Bristol Borough, a grave and serious danger exists and as a result thereof, accidents are likely to occur, resulting in the injury or death of persons traveling over such route in Bristol, now

THEREFORE, I, CLIFFORD L.
ANDERSON, Burgess of the Borough of Bristol, by virtue of the authority in me vested as such Burgess under the law, in pursuance of the provisions under the Vehicle Code of the State of Pennsylvania, do hereby order that all parking of vehicles be prohibited on both sides of Pond street, between the intersection of Mulberry street and Farragut avenue, until the emergency has ceased to exist and this order has been revoked.

CLIFFORD L. ANDERSON,
Burgess.

August 29, 1936.

Diversion of traffic from the Lincoln Highway over the Bristol Pike, passing through Bristol, resulted today in Burgess Clifford L. Anderson issuing a proclamation prohibiting parking of all vehicles on Pond street, between the intersections of Mulberry street and Farragut avenue. The order stands good until revoked and is to be enforced by the police department.

In his proclamation Burgess Anderson calls attention to the danger of such heavy traffic passing through here and in discussing his proclamation said that he hoped it would be given the fullest co-operation. "I would ask that the motorists park on the adjacent streets, and thus avoid congestion on Pond street, over which most of the diverted traffic is passing." The parking ban is to continue only for the duration of the emergency.

The action of Burgess Anderson was taken as Bristol's part in the campaign of the National Safety Council to prevent accidents and thus to lower the number of accidents occurring on the highways during 1936.
Burgess Anderson enlisted Bristol in this nation-wide campaign several months ago and at that time pledged the full co-operation of Bristol in keeping down the number of highway accidents in this borough.

ALL IN THE WEEK'S WORK

RADIOS, PAPERS, SONGS AND DANCES, ON THE MARCH OF TIME ADVANCES!

Old time plot and counter-plot, Alfonso in the mix-up, too,
He's egging on the rebel Spanish,
If secret messages prove true!
The Bourbon blood is running thin,
But still it's very true to style—
Was there ever a counter-plot, royal day-dream, Without a prince in the woodpile!

Iturbi adds his little bit To Spain's revolt—proves quite outraged, Hot-dogs and the finer classics, Don't mix, except on the front page!
Quite right, in theory, but in practice, Alas! the truth will spill,
So often it's the hot dog eaters
Who pay the artistic bill!

What's more, if only I were able,
I'd write a glorious symphony,
A sunlit evening, soft and sweet,
A circus calliophony!
Whine of most enticing 'music', Distant roar, wild jungle noise, Peasut vendor at the corner,
High, sweet cries of girls and boys.

Still, while they talk of war and bloodshed,
Of bomb and poison gas and raid—
The streets of our own cities Form a heedless, death parade, Small children killed a-playing,
Grandmothers crushed and maimed, Yet still we rush and hurry
And modern man is shamed.

That in his great, proud cities
On his broad highways, Thousands meet that cruel reaper,
Untimely cutting short their days, Sometime we'll be much wiser
And taking time and care, We'll boast a great, white highway
No death its path to share.

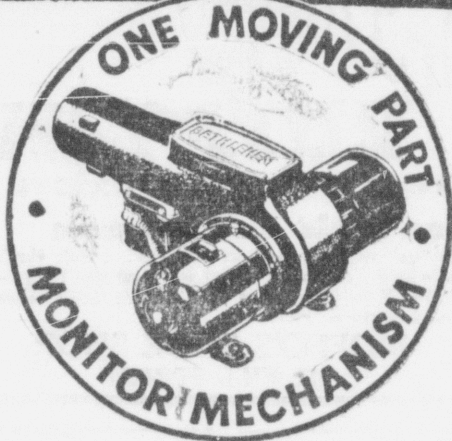

Across the teeming cities,
Over the hills and plains,
I'll stretch, and rolling traffic Will stream in endless trains.
But other roads will saunter Where it's safe to stroll or play, Where small girls will gather flowers
By fields of newmown hay.
F. R. has left for the droughtlands, Landon, too, will gather there—
All is gentlemanly reticence, But there's fireworks in the air!
Landon's frank denunciation Of Teacher's Oath brought much remark,
But in the hearts of loyal teachers
It must have lit a grateful spark.

Like our own famed G-men,
The Soviets 'got their men'
With characteristic thoroughness Gave them death instead of the 'pen'.
Quick and sharp and world echoing They shot them all for plotsky—
"On, on," says Iron Stalin,
"Let me get my hands on Trot-ky!"

Hitler raises mighty armies, England builds great planes,
The world still struggles blindly
In militaristic chains.
Yet, when the gardens blossom,
When the grapes hang heavy with mirth,
We remember the lovely promise:
"The meek shall inherit the earth!"

THE New BETHLEHEM-DOE OIL BURNERS

"Some day I'll buy an oil burner—when they are made as fool-proof and as economical as the modern automobile."

If you are one of those gentlemen from Missouri—you need wait no longer. It's here. It's the New Bethlehem-Doe.

It has only one moving part in its entire operating mechanism. This "monitor mechanism" is a self-contained unit that can be easily removed and replaced by another standard unit in a few minutes if it should ever require servicing. Never any servicing in your cellar—never any interruption in your heating comfort.

This oil burner is live-rubber-mounted, like the modern automobile motor, for enduring silence.

It burns the heavier, cheaper grades of oil—and burns less of it to produce more heat.

This modern miracle in oil heating is on display at our show-rooms. See it. Find out how little it costs to own. Ask about the easy payment purchase plan.

CROYDON ARENA TO OPEN SEASON WITH FINE BOXING CARD, SEPT. 9, MATCHES NOW BEING ARRANGED

CROYDON, Aug. 29.—The Croydon Arena will re-open its doors for the indoors boxing season, Wednesday night, September 9th, with an all-star card featuring the cream of the talent in the amateur ranks.

The Arena will run under the Daggar Athletic Club, with all bouts sanctioned by the Middle Atlantic A. A. U. under the promotion and matchmaking of Mickey Gordon, assisted by Charley Daggar and Johnny Straffe. Extensive alterations are being made for the comfort of the sport-loving fans, and no expense will be sacrificed by the management. It is said, so as to give the fans of this locality the best shows obtainable.

For the opening card, the matchmaker has signed up two of the best heavyweights now performing for the public. Jim Robinson, National runner-up and Middle Atlantic champion, and his brother, Tom Robinson, who is fast rising to the front and giving his brother a tough struggle for heavyweight honors. For Jim Robinson, the matchmaker is dickering for the services of Lesy Richter, intercollegiate champion of 1936, and national champion, and hopes to close the match in a few days. This bout has been in demand by the fans of this locality for quite a while, and the management will be fortunate in securing their signatures to a contract for their services. Tom Robinson, another Daggar boy, is signed up to meet George Murray of the Arena A. C. This bout is a return affair, as they put up one of the greatest slugfests seen at the Arena in Philadelphia a week ago, that had the fans in an uproar throughout.

Jack Carter, Daggar A. C., and a great favorite with the fans in this vicinity, will meet Ellis Stewart of the Wharton Club. Stewart just defeated Richard Donahue a fortnight ago, and was eager for the match, as Carter holds a decision against him which he wants to wipe off. Donahue can be remembered by his great fights with Draber here.

Chester Castor, Bristol's prodigal son, will make his first appearance in this locality after warring in foreign fields for six months, hanging up victory after victory, will meet Johnny Forte, Mason A. C. in another bout. Forte has met with great success here and is a great favorite with the boxing fans.

Billy Crawford, of the Daggar Club, who has rung up a string of 32 straight winners, including the knock-out of Vince Delia and defeating Vernon Woodland in his last start, will mingle with Harry Abbott of the Seymour Club. These two boys put up one of the fastest and most spectacular fights seen in any club a short time ago in Philadelphia as many of the fans of this locality will agree, as they were witnesses to that affair.

The rest of the card is in the making, and the following boys are signed up to appear, but the matchmaker is working to get suitable opponents for them: Benny Lamonica, Mason Club, who has just defeated Delia in a great fight, Fred Aspero of the Neighborhood Club, Willie Cubbins of the Germantown Club, Joe Shanky, Middle Atlantic champion, and Walter Padlo of the Seymour Club.

DELAWARE RIVER TIE TO BE PLAYED OFF SUN.

The second game of the playoff series to determine the championship of the Delaware River baseball League will be played tomorrow afternoon on the Hulmeville diamond. Newtown A. A., second half champions, won the first tilt, beating Jordenton 2-1 in a hurling match between Harry Holslaw and Al Carey.

Manager Burns, of Newtown, intends to send Sammy Wiggins to the hill against the Jerseyites. Wiggins beat the Eagles twice during the second half race and on one occasion blanked them without a run or hit in an eight inning fracas. Wiggins' mound opponent will most likely be Del Farnsworth.

The Hulmeville diamond was picked because of its location and being a neutral field. Last Sunday, the largest crowd of the season packed the Hulmeville stands and saw the pitchers' duel which ended in favor of the Bruins to make it twenty straight league victories and twenty-three straight triumphs.

Game will begin at three o'clock sharp.

Two Raids in Phila.

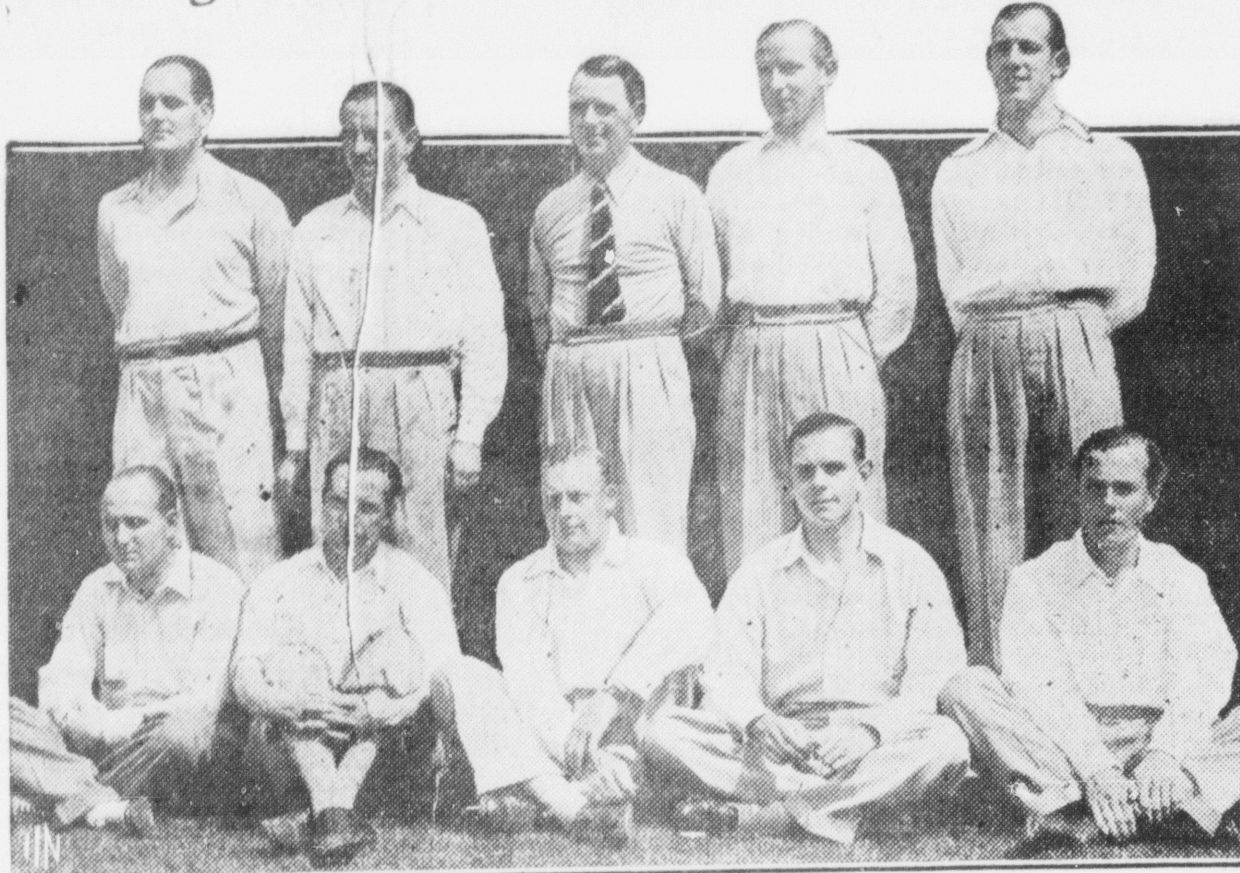

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—Descending without warning on two night clubs in West Philadelphia, the vice squad early today arrested 44 men on charges of frequenting disorderly places. The raids were made, police said, as residents of nearby homes complained to Mayor S. Davis Wilson.

VINCE DELIA vs. LAMONICO

Da other night I went-a to see Deesa fight between Lamonico and-a Vince-a Delia,
And-a boy dat sure was-a somma bout, Da best-a I ever seen-a without-a doubt.
Well, when da bell of da first-a round she-a ring,
Like-a couple wildcats at each-a other dey-a spring, Gloves dey-a fly in-a every direction
And-a lots-a time dey-a make-a connection, A slam in da jaw den a sock on da nose,
It-a look-a as if-a somebody is-a gonna go off in a doze.
First-a one and denna da other would-a score
And-a all of a sudden Vince he hit-a da floor.
He just-a took-a his-a time and slowly arose
And den started in jabbing Lamonico's nose.
Dis-a must-a make heem gitta mad
'Cause-a he just-a tore into Vince widall he-a had.
Boy! you should-a heard da people yell,
When Bong! deessa da bell.
Da second round it was-a just-a da same,
Both of deessa boys were surely same.
Vince would-a in da stomach lay a punch
So-a hard you'da think heesa gonna loose his-a lunch.
Den Lamonico would-a in Vince's jaw give a sock, Sacramento! dat keedsa jaw isa justa like a rock.
By dissa time everybody git excite Because deessa boys were in a real-a fight.
The noise broke loose so loud dat well, Bats all of dat round, deessa da bell.
Da thirda round dey come out again, Dey shooka hands and oh, boy! den
You shoulda see dem boys go to town.
Vince hadda deesa other boy jumpin' aroun'
For Vince started shooting lefts and rights, Boy! I thought he woulda knock heema outa heesa tights.
But deessa Lamonico heesa noa quit,
He justa keepsa tearin' in like-a guy wid a fit.
Botha boys deya begin to getta a little weak,
But da fans wid deessa bout hadda no keek.
And when da bell shee peeld outa da end How den boysa could stand up I noa can comprehend.
Patsy hea say deessa boys willa fight in da nexta show,
So eefa you wanta to seea gooda fight justa go.

ODD FELLOWS TO TRY TO WIN THREE STRAIGHT

The Odd Fellows will attempt to make it three straight and the Bristol Twilight League championship this afternoon as they meet the Hibernians in a tilt of the play-off series on the Landreth ball diamond. The Oddies hold two victories in the series and need but today's triumph to end it.

In an effort to get in a win before the five-game series is over McDewitt of the Hibernians will send Eddie Sullivan to the hill and use Johnny Hemp, former Hulmeville catcher, behind the plate. Henry Clay and Eddie Roe, two regulars of the Hibs club, are on the sidelines because of injuries. The remainder of the line-up will be intact.

"Jake" Praul will toss them up for the Suttonmen with Leo Hibbs doing the receiving. The Odd Fellows will also be handicapped as Benny Praul will be lost to them because of an injury last Sunday and it is still doubtful whether Andy Pfaffenrath will be able to don a uniform. Manager Sutton may have to change his line-up a bit.

Game will begin at three o'clock sharp.

"Follow Route 31"

BEFORE the days of concrete highways, road-maps, and route-markers, interstate motoring was a problem. You had to inquire the way every few miles. Even then, you couldn't be sure.

Today, with intelligent maps and markers, a coast-to-coast tour may be made as easily as a county-to-county trip twenty years ago. It's like that with the advertisements. They are route-markers along the buy-ways of America. Follow them to value and profit, and avoid the detours to doubt.

Read this paper page by page and column by column. The little ads as well as the big ones. Often a bit of worth-while information is found in the smallest type. For example, the Want Ads. So, look them over every day. But don't overlook them!
